

 URL: <http://tbo.com/pasco-county/high-school-musical-opens-tonight-20140516/>

‘High School Musical’ opens tonight

By GARY S. HATRICK
Tribune correspondent

GARY S. HATRICK

Adrienne LeFebvre, from left, Katie Tawzer, Madalyn Alston and Emily Hoerbelt perform during a dress rehearsal Wednesday for “High School Musical.”

Arts in Motion Community Youth Theatre and Art Education will present “High School Musical” today through Sunday at Pasco Middle School, 13925 14th St. in Dade City.

The production will feature more than 40 youth in kindergarten through 12th grade. The performances will be at 7:30 p.m. today and Saturday, with matinees at 3 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Tickets are $15 for adults; $7 for students; and $12 for seniors. They are available online at artsinmotionpasco.com.

Some members of the “High School Musical” cast are: (where a part is double-casted, there are multiple names) Josh Corjay as Troy Bolton; Adrienne LeFebvre and Chase Hemphill as Gabriella Montez; Tommy Driscoll as Chad Danforth; Allyson Cloversettle and Julia Barreto as Taylor McKessie; Melanie Kender and Summer Fields as Sharpay Evans; and Alex Alfonso as Ryan Evans.; Madalyn Alston and Katie Tawzer as Kelsi Nielson; Connor Mirrop and Tristan Haberland as Zeke Baylor.

Arts in Motion was started in 1995 as a community-based, all-volunteer, not-for-profit youth theatre and arts education organization. For information, call Patti Corjay, AIM president, (813) 838-1975.